Dear colleagues:

I am very glad to share with you that Mr. Jamyang Dorjee Nhangkar was selected by the board of directors to serve the remainder of the current term for Position 1 on the school board. You may recall that Mr. Wenta resigned from the position due to health challenges. You can read more detail about the selection and appointment process in the news release. You can read more about the role of the board and directors in the School Board pages on the district website.

Jamyang works as a public affairs specialist at Community Transit, managing the agency's relationships with local organizations, chambers of commerce, government agencies and other community groups. Previously he has held positions with the Economic Alliance of Snohomish County, the Puget Sound Business Journal, and ChildStrive (formerly Little Red School House). He serves on the board of the Lynnwood Chamber of Commerce and is a former president and current board member of the Tibetan Association of Washington. He holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree from Delhi University in New Delhi, India. Jamyang and his wife have two children who attend Everett Public Schools, one at Jackson High School and one at Heatherwood Middle School, and he coaches soccer as a part of his service to community.

Jamyang is scheduled to be administered the oath of office at the September 25 regular board meeting. His term runs through December 2019.

I know you'll join me in warmly welcoming Jamyang to our school board.

Warmest regards,

Gary
