

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Celebration SNOHOMISH COUNTY

2019 Prodigies for Peace Writing Contest Info Sheet

To: Our local Schools, Students, and Parents:

The Snohomish County NAACP is proud to announce the 18th annual Prodigies for Peace Writing Contest for the Snohomish County MLK Day and NAACP Black History Month Celebration in January and February 2019.

The Prodigies for Peace Writing Contest helps students draw connections between the people and the events that shaped the civil rights movement and the social issues that influence their lives today. Participation in this contest helps our local community remember and celebrate the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.!

There are five separate contest categories:

- Grades 3-5
- Grades 6-8
- Grades 9-12
- Grades K-12 Art Contest

See the attached pages for contest writing assignments and art contest. Return all entries to the Everett School District Community Resource Center (3900 Broadway, Everett), attention SCB NAACP Prodigies for Peace, no later than 4:30 p.m., February 1, 2019. 2019 Prodigies for Peace Writing Contest Grades 6-8 and Grades 9-12

Please write an essay on the following question:

Rev. Dr. Martin King Jr. wrote "Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly. I can never be what I ought to be until you are what you ought to be. This is the interrelated structure of reality."

Explain what actions you can do to positively affect others to make this world a more just and safe place for all people.

Background and Instructions:

Consider how Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s legacy affected the civil rights and other important issues of all Americans. Over 50 years ago in 1963 during the March on Washington, Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. spoke of his dreams that "one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal.'" His message was to reach all people to overcome the fear and hate that creates inequality and injustice – what is your message?

Return your Contest Entry to the Everett School District Community Resource Center, (3900 Broadway, Everett 98201), attention SCB NAACP Prodigies for Peace or scanned and emailed to secretary@naacp-snoco.org. Entries may be typed or handwritten and should include: Name, Phone Number, School, Teacher, and Grade. This information should be on the upper right hand corner of the first page of the entry.

Word Limit:

Grades 6-8:	minimum: 250 words	maximum: 750 words
Grades 9-12:	minimum: 500 words	maximum: 1,000 words

Contest Deadline: No later than 4:30 p.m. on Friday, February 1, 2019

Note: Although the question is the same for both grade groups, there will be separate contest winners for Grade 6-8 and for Grade 9-12.

Please copy for students, children, or teachers.

2019 Prodigies for Peace Art Contest Grades Kindergarten through 12

This year's theme is what dreams do you have for our nation by spreading Dr. King's message that love will make all people equal.

Through any medium [drawing, painting, sculpting...] you wish to use, please create an art piece that reflects your artistic vision of Dr. King's dream coming true in our country through your eyes.

All art entries will be grouped into the following age categories for students:

- K through 2
- 3 through 5
- 6 through 8
- 9 through 12

We ask that all drawings, paintings, etc. not be larger than 11" x 14" and have the artist's name, age and school on the front of each art piece.
