

News release
March 4, 2019

John Barhanovich selected as Girls Basketball Coach of the Year

Recognized by Snohomish County Basketball Officials for 2019 honor

Everett— Cascade High School's girls head basketball coach John Barhanovich was recently selected as Girls Basketball Coach of the Year for his outstanding coaching during a challenging season for the Cascade Bruins' girls basketball team.

"One of the goals of the Snohomish County Basketball Officials (SCBBO) is to recognize coaches who exemplify outstanding sportsmanship and character on the court," shared Chris Soterakopoulos, SCBBO Sportsmanship Committee Chairman in a letter to John Barhanovich.

"This is a phenomenal recognition that speaks volumes about John," shared Rhonda Covert, Cascade staff member for athletics. "He helped keep the girls motivated, excited and having fun whether it was at practice or during games."

"Congratulations on a job well done on and off the floor, as well as in the community," added Soterakopoulos. "Snohomish County is lucky to have an excellent coach of your stature and Cascade High School is a pleasure to officiate because of your leadership."

Barhanovich will be honored at their April 6 annual banquet.

---end---

For more information:

Kathy Reeves, Director of Communications, 425-385-4040

Chris Soterakopoulos, SCBBO Sportsmanship Committee Chairman, 360-471-1919