When school ends, summer reading begins!

For all Everett Public Schools students entering grades 9, 10, 11, & 12

2019 Summer Reading

We firmly believe that given free choice in reading, students will choose books they love to read, will read more, and will step up to academic challenges. Most of all, we want our students to develop a passion for learning, and we know that reading will help in this endeavor. We invite all high school families to join us in our 2019 Summer Reading Challenge!

Amelia Pimenta (CHS), Emily Moore (JHS), Deb Payne (EHS), Tami Koenen (Sequoia)

Step one: Read! Read more! Read a lot! Read whatever you want! VOLUME of reading is key this summer!

Step two: For prizes, celebrations, and name recognition in The Herald, you must track your reading in the Google Quiz located below and on your school’s library website. If you do not want your child’s name printed in The Daily Herald, please sign
