

News release

July 25, 2019

Everett Public Schools wants to hear from you Superintendent Saltzman holding community listening events

Everett, WA— Dr. Ian B. Saltzman has been at the helm of the Everett School District for one month, and is focusing on getting to know staff, teachers, board members and community leaders. He would also like to hear from the district's families and community.

There will be three community listening events in August, which will be opportunities for Dr. Saltzman to hear directly from the community on what they think is going well in the district, what things may be improved upon, and any advice they have for him as the district's new superintendent.

The events are open to the public and are as follows:

Central Region	August 12	Cascade High School	6 – 7:15 p.m.
North Region	August 28	Community Resource Center	6 – 7:15 p.m.
South Region	August 29	Jackson High School	6 – 7:15 p.m.

If you have any questions, contact communications@everettsd.org.

---end---

For more information:

Kathy Reeves, Director of Communications, 425-385-4040