The “Battle for Broadway” has a new traveling trophy

Inaugural “Mayor’s Cup” set for this Friday

For over a half century, the rivalry between the Everett High School Seagulls and the Cascade High School Bruins has been highlighted at the first football game between the teams each year, dubbed, “Battle for Broadway.”

This year, the battle is Friday, September 6th, and will include an exciting new component, the Mayor’s Cup. The perpetual trophy will be presented by Mayor Cassie Franklin and Superintendent Ian B. Saltzman to the winning team at the conclusion of the game. Each year moving forward, the winning team will proudly display the cup at their school.
