Burlington-Edison School District

Burlington-Edison School District Food Services is providing breakfast and lunch during the extended school closure duration. We are providing grab and go breakfast and lunch sack meals to ALL students, 18 years or younger. Meals will only be provided Monday-Friday.

Locations and times can be found at https://www.be.wednet.edu/emergency-information/covid-19

Please contact 360-757-3311 or email questions@be.wednet.edu for additional information on this service.
Concrete School District

We will distribute breakfast and lunch to students using our regular bus routes. Although we are using our bus routes, the delivery vehicle may be one of our other school vehicles (suburban, small bus, or car). These times will be adjusted as we better figure this process out. Please be patient with us! You could really help by being out at the bus stop to receive these meals and provide feedback as to how it is going. Thank you!

If you have any issues or questions please call or email our Food Services Director Marla Reed at 360-853-4035 or mreed@concrete.k12.wa.us

Route schedule can be found here
