

Procedure 3220P Freedom of Expression

Revisions remove the word “advocate” to reflect the standard specified in the Washington New Voices Act clarifying that prohibitions on student speech are limited to acts that “incite” rather than “advocate” the violation of law.

Policy 3221 Student Publications

Proposed revisions are to clarify that prohibitions on student speech are limited to acts that “incite” rather than “advocate” the violation of law. This clarification reflects the standard specified in the Washington New Voices Act.
