

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Department Updates

“The heart that gives, gathers.”
- Lao-tzu, Tao Te Ching

Women’s History Month:

A celebration of women’s contributions to society. This has been observed annually since 1987. You may find more information here.

Developmental Disability Awareness Month:

An opportunity to increase awareness and promote respect for people with other abilities. You can read more here.

Black Lives Matter Language

Please see the attached document that shares the differences between the statement, “Black Lives Matter,” made by staff members, the organization #BlackLivesMatter, and Black Lives Matter at Schools the national coalition organizing racial justice in education.

Cup of Joy:

The first Cup of Joy for this school year was on February 18th, 2022. You can read the minutes here. Cup of Joy is time for staff of EPS to provide the DEI Department feedback, or have small group supports regarding equity related topics. To register for the next meeting click here.
