

Procedure 3421P, Child Abuse, Neglect, and Exploitation

Revisions are requested by Dave Peters and have been reviewed by legal counsel. In speaking with several staff members, Dave determined that our current procedure does not provide staff sufficient clarity to resolve situations where they must report possible child abuse or neglect cases to CPS. Revisions incorporate WSSDA's model language, which offers increased clarity for staff to be able to work through future CPS reporting situations.