

Western Washington University –Everett

- Woodring's small class sizes, dedicated professors, and diverse curriculum made me a better educator, while the student-centered approach means I've had a real voice in my education."

– Quinn Reno , Education Student

Woodring College of Education Informational Session

Are you interested in pursuing your teacher certificate and be part of a program in the same city where you work? Also worried about how you would pay for school? WWU-Everett program will be joining us to talk more about programs the Everett campus (EvCC) offers. We will have the admissions team and instructors of the Dual Endorsement Program: Elementary and Special Education, and the WWU Financial Aid Department in attendance.

Highlights

- Pursue your education right here in Everett
- Engage in the diverse classrooms you already know
- Gain more practical experience
- Network with additional school leaders and administrators
- Join a small cohort of students of all ages and backgrounds
