

Earn world language credit

You can earn high school world language credits in grades 7–12 if you can fluently read, write, speak, and listen in a language other than English!

Take the world language assessment!

Earn up to four proficiency-based high school credits

Earn credit towards the world language course graduation requirement

Qualifying students can earn the Seal of Biliteracy: special recognition at commencement and on transcripts

Registration open now through October 25

Middle School students register at the front office. Cost is $10

High School students register with building treasurer. Cost is $10

World Language Assessment Test Date:

Registration required

