

Edmonds Center for the Arts
Summer Arts Enrichment Camps

Dungeons & Dragons CAMP

JULY 17-21
8:30AM- 2PM

AGES 12-16

FEE:
$400*

Do you yearn for adventure? Do you desire to explore strange ruins, travel through mystical forests, and battle the forces of evil?

Create a unique character and go on your own amazing adventures during Edmonds Center for the Arts' brand-new Dungeons and Dragons Camp 2023!

Campers will:

- Dive deep into learning how to play Dungeons and Dragons (D&D).
- Develop skills like empathy, teamwork, and storytelling.
- Act out their adventures at the end of the week in a performance.

Led by ECA's Education & Outreach Coordinator, Nick Williamson.

Nick has been developing educational programming for kids for over 6 years and has been playing D&D for 4 years!

*ECA is proud to offer need-based scholarships covering up to 100% of camp tuition. Please complete an application form on our website.

D&D Camp is made possible with generous support from the Hazel Miller Foundation and the Susan Elizabeth Fund.

Learn More & Register at EC4ARTS.ORG!

Edmonds Center for the Arts
Summer Arts Enrichment Camps

CROW CAMP

at Kruckeberg Botanic Garden

KRAAA

JULY 31 -
AUGUST 4
9AM- 3PM

AGES 7-12

FEE: $400

Join us for Crows Camp 2023, where kids can learn about nature, express themselves through art projects and be guided through reflective practices. Crows and ravens are smart, quirky, and mysterious. Join us and learn how crows and ravens communicate, create crow-inspired artwork, and discover these birds' meanings in cultures from around the globe! How will these clever creatures inspire your curiosity?

*ECA is proud to offer need-based scholarships covering up to 100% of camp tuition. Please complete an application form on our website.

Crow Camp is led by Soma Smith from EdCatalyst using curriculum developed by UW Bothell, and is made possible with generous support from the Hazel Miller Foundation.

Learn More & Register at EC4ARTS.ORG!