

September 2023 Core Value: Respect

School	Student Name	Why they were nominated
Cedar Wood	Lincoln Braile	Lincoln shows respect by serving as a leader in the Cedar Wood Ambassadors, supporting his peers.
Emerson	Isabella Jones, K	This student was nominated by her Kindergarten teacher. Isabella shows respect every day by getting along with her classmates. Isabella shows respect by having great listening skills that help her be ready to learn!
Forest View	Saashinee Rajesh, 5	Saashinee respects everyone and everything around her. She is inclusive of others, kind, and ensures others get an opportunity to do things before she does. She exemplifies respect in many ways.
Hawthorne	Martha Norales	Martha SOAR's to success each day in her interactions with students and staff at Hawthorne. Thank you Martha for always being respectful to yourself, others, and our school learning environment.
Jackson	Aidan McDonald	Aidan was nominated because he shows respect to adults and peers by listening carefully and responding thoughtfully.
Jefferson	Sam Juarez Lopez, 5	Sam positively participates in class discussions, and he is friendly and respectful when he talks with adults and students.
Lowell	Dylan Kelly	The teacher who nominated him said that Dylan is one of the most respectful students she has ever known. Dylan is helpful and kind, but moreover, goes out of his way to be respectful to staff and other students. Dylan routinely listens carefully, seeks out opportunities to provide support for others, and encourages his peers.
Madison	James Williams	James Williams consistently demonstrates kindness and consideration towards his peers and teachers creating a positive and inclusive learning environment where ever he goes. You can always find James helping his classmates with their school work or simply just being a supportive friend. We are very proud of James.

Mill creek	Pehal Thacker, 5	Pehal radiates respect everyday through her actions with everyone she meets. Not only does she demonstrate respect during lessons by listening with her whole body, patiently waiting to contribute to conversations, and following directions, but she also enjoys helping others, honoring our learning differences, and working cooperatively to advance her own learning and the learning of those around her. Pehal contributes to our school wide vision of Cougar Pride every day and is a model citizen here at Mill Creek Elementary!
Monroe	Jordana Cassa	Jordana is a sweet caring student. She is respectful of all her classmates and staff. She is a great example of what is to be respectful to others.
Penny Creek	Dhanvanth Giridharan	He is caring toward others and is willing to help others learn skills once he has mastered them himself. Dhanvanth is a natural leader with a relational, positive attitude.
Port Gardner	India Debroeck	India is respectful in that she listens attentively to her classmates when they are sharing. India also works as a team with her groups to make sure everyone gets a chance to participate.
Silver Firs	Makenna Harston	Makenna comes to school with a positive growth mindset every day. She is polite kind and engaging with her peers and adults. She has overcome multiple IEP's to be at or above grade level in all academic areas and will now exit resource room.
Silver Lake	Tahlia Sands	She is always on task. She loves participating in her learning and is actively involved with the school by participating in patrol. She also shows nothing but kindness to all around her.
Tambark Creek	Zachary Sharkevich, 5	He is helpful during breakfast. He helps his brothers and sisters and picks up after them. He is respectful in the bus line and helps with the kindergarteners.

View Ridge	Eyusyase Kassa	Eyusyase is an outstanding 4th grade student who is always ready and eager to help others. Eyusyase supports our classroom and school community by respectfully meeting expectations during all the parts of the day and in all areas of the school. Eyusyase treats everyone he encounters with kindness and respect, and his joy and enthusiasm are a true gift to our classroom community.
Whittier	Osvaldo Cruz Beltran	I really want to nominate Osvaldo Cruz Beltran for September. He is kind to everyone, has wonderful manners, and happily translates for classmates who don't speak English. He models respect every day with every person he encounters.
Woodside	Chancellor Yi	Chancellor is always listening to his peers and teacher and he never interrupts. He is courteous and kind and is a leader in his classroom. Chancellor is willing to help his peers and teachers to ensure the classroom runs smoothly.
Eisenhower	Esther Cruz	Esther shows her respect towards others by always being polite and kind. She is a morning TA in the library. She shows up early and gets immediately to work and always has a great attitude.
Evergreen	David Parker Silva-Gilvin	This student is always respectful, on time, on task, and ready to learn! He encourages his classmates to stay on task as well. He has a sense of the classroom community and wants everyone to do well.
Gateway	Reese Edwards, 8	Throughout her 3 years at Gateway, Reese has always found ways to stand out and make a huge difference in our school! She is an excellent student, an amazing athlete, and a good friend to all. Her smile and positive outlook are contagious.
Heatherwood	Avery Sundby	A student that is a great role model. Always kind and respectful to not only her peers but also staff. Willing to go out of her way to help others. Student always follows classroom expectations. Amazing student, classmate, and friend.
North	Elias Josue Lopez Flores	Elias is a quiet leader who is well regarded and appreciated by students and adults alike, across our North campus. He actively considers the needs of others and seeks to honor others through his words and actions. His emotional maturity and focus on what matters will continue to serve him exceptionally well across his bright future. Thank you Elias, for being you.

Cascade	Chris Medlock	Chris has stepped up this year as a student leader, and from everything we've seen, he has led with inclusivity and respect at the forefront of his work. We've been impressed by his work in all school assemblies, his work with other students, and his willingness to lead.
Everett	Deborah Vasuilakeba, 11	Deborah epitomizes respect for all. She is a student leader in the Pacific Islander club and campus. On the first days of school she actively sought out new students to welcome them to EHS and help them find their classes. She greets every person with a smile.
Jackson High	Caden Tashiro, Grade 12	Congratulations to Caden Tashiro for receiving this well-deserved award for being exceptionally respectful. Your unwavering kindness, consideration, and especially patience towards others have not only made a positive impact on our school community, but also set an example for those around you. Your dedication to treating everyone with respect and dignity whether they're students or adults is genuinely admirable, and we are proud to recognize your outstanding character. Keep being you, as your respectful attitude will surely continue to elevate those around you, and congrats once again!
Sequoia	Jack Giraud	Jack is always respectful and willing to talk things out if there is an issue. He offers a kind word to those who are struggling in class. He supports his classmates and strives to be a role model for those around him.