

February 2024 Core Value: Integrity

School	Student Name	Why they were nominated
Cedar Wood	Noah Pumper	Noah consistently sets a great example of integrity for his classmates.
Emerson	Millian Sakda	Millian is responsible, meets expectations, and spontaneously helps others in need. She is dependable and always follows directions with precision. She is conscientious about her learning and strives to practice and master new skills. In addition, she is always kind and patient with others. Millian is a solid example of integrity: having and adhering to strong moral principles and being honest.
Forest View	Allison Vo	Allison consistently demonstrates honesty and responsibility in her actions, setting a positive example for her peers. Her integrity shines through in her academic efforts and interactions with others, making her a deserving recipient of the Core Value - Integrity recognition for February.
Garfield	Julietta Gijon Carmona	Julietta is truly a person of integrity by always being honest and loyal not only to herself, but her classmates too. She goes out of her way to support classmates and peers who are struggling academically or emotionally. Julietta shows integrity also because she is consistently truthful, even in tough situations.
Hawthorne	Avery Paplow	Avery consistently does what is expected and helps others along the way do the same. We appreciate you Avery!
Jackson	Elizabeth Cheever	Libby always holds herself accountable to doing her very best even when teachers aren't looking. She is always striving to do the right thing and has a tremendously positive influence in her classroom.
Jefferson	William Shursen	William represents the core value of integrity because when others aren't watching he remembers to do what is right. Even if he makes a mistake, he takes responsibility, reflects on his behavior, and makes the changes necessary to change his day.
Lowell	Brook Kelifa	Brook has grown so much in the past few years, while also keeping his integrity and core values. He is honest, polite, kind, and a good friend to his peers.
Madison	Seveena Seeger	Seveena consistently demonstrates honesty and integrity in all her actions. Whether it's completing assignments with integrity, treating others with respect, or standing up for what she believes in. Seveena sets a great example for everyone around her by showing kindness, honesty, and fairness every day.

Mill Creek	Blake Bonallo	Blake shows integrity every day both in and outside of the classroom. He regularly works hard to follow expectations and is always honest if he makes a mistake. He is kind and helps other peers to follow expectations as well! His high expectations for himself and caring nature will ensure he continues to thrive!
Monroe	James Fedonchuk	James is honest, even when he makes a mistake. He is a role model for other students on how to be a good person. He follows all school and classroom expectations without reminders, even when not in the presence of adults.
Penny Creek	Amreen Gill	Amreen actively seeks ways to contribute positively to school service and be a productive member of school teams. She is honest, loyal, trustworthy, and a positive role model for younger students in our school.
Port Gardner K-12	Ella Frausto	Ella is a hard-working student who not only does the right thing, but she challenges others to be the best he/she can be as well. Ella is an encourager, a dedicated student, and an outstanding athlete. Ella embodies integrity by always doing the right thing, even when no one is watching. Congratulations Ella for making Port Gardner a better place!
Silver Firs	Leo Shoukourian	Leo is always doing what he needs to be without being told. If he does happen to think he has hurt someone's feelings he is quick to apologize. He is so very kind and a wonderful friend to others.
Silver Lake	Ephi Robel	Ephi is not influenced by others who may be off task, but rather she's a model student of what you should be doing even if the teacher is not looking. She keeps other students accountable too by reminding them to do the right thing. Her positive actions reflect positively on her academics and relationships with others.
Tambark Creek	Isabella Lee	Isabella is always honest about what is going on. She tells me the truth and I can count on her to be reliable and trustworthy.
View Ridge	Freya Fankhauser	Freya has a passion for learning. She takes what we are learning here at school home with her and on her own creates posters and diagrams that we can display in the classroom. She is a hard worker who is eager and ready to learn new things every day. She is strong enough to know what is right and to do it even when no one is watching.

Whittier	Ellery Bland	Ellery consistently shows integrity every day at school, whether it is something small like being honest about talking when she was not supposed to or something big like standing up against racism. She spoke up when she saw a student making a racial remark and said, "That is not nice, you shouldn't say that" and then reported it to the recess staff. Her actions not only demonstrate her integrity in the face of adversity but also model a standard of respect and inclusion.
Woodside	Elianna Lightner	Elianna demonstrates strong moral principles and is honest and trustworthy with her peers. She knows the right thing, even when no one is watching. Integrity is an important quality to use throughout your personal and academic life.
Eisenhower	Giovanna Isabella Castro	Giovanna is a model student and has the highest standards for integrity. She is helpful to her peers and always makes the right choice.
Evergreen	Esmeralda Jimenez Guzman	Esmeralda is honest, even if her answers or ideas are not the popular opinion. She is also honest with her peers and holds them up to higher standards when she (gently) disagrees or pushes back on something that's been said. She has helped peers resolve conflict as well.
Gateway	Nate Ottem	Nate consistently makes wise choices to do what is right. He's conscientious with his work, considerate of his peers, and accepts responsibility for his actions.
Heatherwood	Townsend Mahan	Townsend is a student who will do what's right even when nobody is watching. He reaches out to students who need extra support. Townsend serves as a positive role model in the classroom and basketball court! He consistently demonstrates good citizenship and sportsmanship.
North	Telyn Lochuch	Telyn was nominated by North teacher, Deborah Carman-Janssen, for her exceptional integrity. She knows who she is and who she is growing to be and does not compromise this vision for her future. She is bright, caring, and honest. Telyn is a quiet leader who values the needs of others. This level of selflessness is rare and consistent with her values.
Cascade	Aidan Kopra	Aidan is an outstanding student-athlete. He is always willing to help staff and students around school, volunteers for any opportunity to serve others including the food drive, and does the right thing, even when no one is watching. We are very proud to have Aidan as a Bruin!

Everett	Kloie Wells	Kloie embodies integrity at Everett High School through her consistent actions and demeanor. With her infectious smile and unwavering kindness towards everyone, she sets a shining example for her peers. By always choosing to do the right thing and upholding the highest standards of character, Kloie ensures that integrity remains at the forefront; we are lucky to have her as part of the EHS community.
Jackson High	Joie Kim	Joie has been in ASB for the entirety of her time at Jackson High School, including serving three years on the ASB Executive Board. This year, she is the ASB President, which regularly puts her amid difficult decisions and challenging conversations. She is faced with situations where she can make choices that benefit her and her friends, where she can give preferential treatment, or where she can do things the way they have always been done. Consistently, Joie chooses to do the right thing; she thinks about all the students at JHS, she is unbiased in her decision-making, and she seeks out new ways to do things that might better accomplish inclusion and diverse representation. Joie has proven herself to have integrity in every situation that she has faced and is deserving of this recognition.
Sequoia	Piper Yerrington	Piper is an honest and responsible student. She knows how to discern the right thing to do AND makes sure she follows through with it.
Sequoia GOAL program	Geoshjoa Perkins	GP has always been a consistently good student especially when on job sites. He has also been an invaluable help to the staff with the GOAL program on our Friday field trips into the community.
