Seattle Area Activities – Free First Thursday Events

On the first Thursday of every month, Seattle residents have a chance to get out and see the best that our museums have to offer -- all for FREE! It's called "First Thursdays."

Free 1st Thursdays for Everyone - Free 1st Saturday for Families

Seattle Art Museum

1300 1st Ave, Seattle, WA 98101

The Seattle Art Museum (SAM) is the city's most prestigious art exhibition building, featuring a variety of exhibits and retrospectives that highlight well-known classic and contemporary artists. SAM contains an impressively large collection, totaling over 23,000 artifacts, including a 3,000-piece African art collection and a comprehensive Asian Art collection. The museum is located in the heart of downtown, just blocks from Rainier Square and the Seattle Aquarium

Seattle Asian Art Museum

1400 E Prospect St, Seattle, WA 98112

A branch of the Seattle Art Museum (and housed in their original building), the Seattle Asian Art Museum features such highlights as a wonderful collection of Chinese terra-cotta funerary art, rooms dedicated to Chinese and Japanese ceramics and stone religious sculptures of India. Free 1st Thursdays for Everyone- Free 1st Saturday for Families

Seattle Asian Art Museum

Burke Museum of Natural History and Culture

4303 Memorial Way Northeast, Seattle, WA 98195

Recording the rich history of the Pacific Northwest, the Burke Museum includes an extensive series of displays which speak to the past and present of 17 different Native American tribes that occupied the region. One of the facility's most important roles is as a storage area for preserving artifacts, holding over 12 million archaeological, ethnological and paleontological items in total. The museum is located on the northwestern end of the University of Washington campus. *1st Thursday only is free admission.

The Museum of Flight

9404 E Marginal Way S, Seattle, WA 98108

Free first Thursdays, 5-9pm ONLY.

Holding an extensive collection of aerospace and aviation artifacts, The Museum of Flight features an amazing array of historical and modern aircraft, along with fascinating exhibits about the history of space travel. Board a British Airways Concorde plane, see authentic and replica pieces from various spacefaring nations, and walk around and underneath more than three dozen modern aircraft. Interactive activities at the museum include rides aboard the 13-person 4D-X flight simulator and space shuttle simulator.

Volunteer Park Conservatory 1400 East Galer St, Seattle, WA 98112

Free first Thursday and Saturday of the month 10am-4pm
