

September 2024 Core Value: Respect

School	Student Name	Why they were nominated
Cedar Wood	Leif White	Leif is very respectful and works hard!
Emerson	Colton Wright	Colton demonstrates respect at Emerson all day, every day. He is a pleasure to have in any class at Emerson and consistently excels as a great friend to all his classmates.
Forest View	Ryan Neal	Ryan consistently brings a positive attitude to school and leads by example, inspiring his classmates through his actions. He excels academically in all subjects and is seen as a go-to leader by his peers. His kindness and cheerful demeanor make him a valued member of our school community.
Garfield	Ella Esquibel	Ella strives each day to be respectful to all at Garfield. She goes above and beyond to be a good listener, a trustworthy individual, and a good friend. Ella is the perfect Respect Core Value Champion.
Hawthorne	Jeuel Kenagy	Jeuel is super respectful, kind, welcoming, and willing to support all parts of our school and learning. We appreciate you Jeuel!
Jackson	Iman Ahmadi	Iman is a student who always looks for ways to show respect to his peers and his teachers. He is so kind with his words and actions and always makes sure to think about others.
Jefferson	Jamie Carlson	Jamie has demonstrated respect by treating his fellow classmates well, considering their feelings, and making them feel appreciated and valued. By modeling respect not only to his classmates but also to all Jefferson Chargers, Jamie has helped to create a positive learning environment!
Lowell	Deson Paulis	Deson treats everyone in our learning community with respect. He is always friendly and kind, building others up and offering to help.
Madison	Angel Solorzano	Angel always respects his teachers, peers, and anyone he comes into contact with. He listens to how others feel and never misses an opportunity to help someone in need. He is a wonderful role model for everyone around him!

Mill creek	Jeremy Shepherd	Jeremy consistently shows everyone a great deal of respect. He listens, asks questions, and offers a helping hand when someone needs a kind and respectful friend. He has great manners and values everyone's time. He helps the classroom run efficiently and always follows the golden rule. Thank you, Jeremy.
Monroe	Harper Seltzer	Harper shows respect by setting a good example for other students and always following the SOAR expectations as a Monroe Eagle should. In class, she consistently makes good choices, is kind to others, and is respectful to all staff. Harper completes her classwork, is an active learner, and is always engaged and paying attention to help her grow as a successful student.
Penny Creek	Anna Russu	Anna is highly respectful and polite to everyone.
Port Gardner K-12	Ruby McKee	Ruby shows respect at school by being polite, kind, and an active listener. She also shares supplies and takes turns with her classmates.
Silver Firs	Haddon Spurgeon	Haddon is always a role model and communicates respectfully with others inside and outside the classroom. He respects class time, stays on task, and is purposeful in his work. He also respects others' space and feelings.
Silver Lake	Monte Williams	Monte exemplifies the Core Value of Respect. He has shown he can value differences in others by helping classmates get to the office daily and including other students during play time and center time. He listens to others when speaking and always uses kind words when talking to others.
Tambark Creek	Yuvaan Mehta	Yuvaan consistently demonstrates respect in the classroom. He listens attentively during lessons, raises his hand before speaking, and thoughtfully engages with his classmates' ideas. His considerate behavior extends beyond the classroom, as he is polite to staff and teachers and readily offers help when needed. His respectful demeanor creates a positive and supportive atmosphere.
View Ridge	Evelyne Day	Evelyne consistently demonstrates respect by listening attentively to her classmates and offering thoughtful contributions during discussions. She treats peers and teachers with kindness, always ensuring everyone's voice is heard and valued.

Whittier	Audrey Marin	Audrey has been a model student since the beginning of kindergarten. She respects her peers and school staff, and she shines as an example for others to follow!
Woodside	Jamail Mosby	Jamail considers others' feelings and is open-minded to differing beliefs and opinions. He works hard to solve disagreements peacefully and respectfully, asking for support when needed. Jamail is an active listener, mindful with his words, and kind and helpful to students and adults at Woodside!
Eisenhower	Hilary Silva Lopez	Hilary has demonstrated respectful, nurturing behavior in her classrooms. She provides unconditional help and respect to peers and helps maintain a positive environment.
Evergreen	Christian Byars	Christian is courteous and polite when interacting with me and others in the classroom. He says please, thank you, and excuse me in his interactions with staff and students. He respects the learning environment by following volume level guidelines and by following the Timberwolf PAWS expectations.
Gateway	Trisha Shrestha	Trisha is a friend to all her peers, respectful and friendly with staff, and always positive. She is the first to help others and ensure those around her are cared for. Trisha's respect for others is evident in her relationships!
Heatherwood	Tony Kabwe	Tony always holds the door open for people, helps set up and take down classrooms, says "please" and "thank you" to staff, and fully participates in classroom lessons.
North	Mathew Cervantes	Mathew is a seventh grader at North and is an outstanding representative of what it means to be respectful. Initially nominated by his teacher, Deb Carmen-Janssen, Mathew became our school's choice as he treats all with respect, including fellow students and staff. Mathew sees the value and potential in everyone, and as such, he treats each person with compassion and care. He is a joy to work with daily and is highly regarded across North Middle. As a school community, we want to thank Mathew and his family for the example that he is to others.

Cascade	Sam Welch	Sam is authentic, true to his values, and treats people the way he would want to be treated. He is a supportive, responsive, and, above all else, a kind student who is a leader through his treatment of others.
Everett	Yousif Aljumaili	Yousif embodies the characteristic of RESPECT at Everett High School through his kind, patient, and open-minded interactions with his peers and adults. Not only does he leave a positive impression, but he can also be seen on campus picking up trash, holding doors, and greeting his peers, making them feel seen and heard. Yousif displays respect daily for himself, his fellow Seagulls, and the community.
Jackson High	Jeremiah Larson	Jeremiah shows respect in everything he does. He can regularly be found helping the office staff, doing just about anything that is asked, and offering to help people who visit. Whenever someone needs a student to help with just about anything, Jeremiah is always one of the first people to step up, and he does so with kindness and respect.
Sequoia	Trevor Bradley	Trevor is appreciative and respectful in the way he talks, interacts with others, and conducts himself. He meets and exceeds all expectations.