

News release

Nov. 5, 2024

Everett Public Schools board recognized as a Board of Distinction

*Front: Jen Hirman, Charles Adkins, Caroline Mason
Back: Traci Mitchell, Roman Rewolinski*

Everett, WA--We are proud to announce the Everett School District School Board of Directors has been awarded the prestigious Washington State School Directors Association (WSSDA) designation of "Board of Distinction" for this year. This honor recognizes the board's exceptional commitment to advancing educational opportunities and supporting the success of all students in our district.

The board's innovative initiatives, particularly the expansion of dual language learning programs, were highlighted as a standout achievement. These programs provide critical support for our multilingual students and create a more inclusive environment for our diverse community, aligning with the district's mission to offer equitable learning opportunities for all.

"We are honored to be recognized for the incredible work happening in Everett Public Schools," shared Board President Traci Mitchell. "This award truly belongs to our staff, students, families, and community whom we proudly serve. We are inspired by the innovation demonstrated across our district every day and we are excited to see all the great things we will accomplish together in the future."

The board will be formally recognized during the President's Dinner at WSSDA's Annual Conference on Thursday, November 21, in Spokane.

---end---

For more information:

Harmony Weinberg, Director of Communications, 425-385-4040