North Middle School student selected to participate in all-state choir

More than 375 outstanding seventh- and eighth-grade music students from across Washington have received top honors by being selected to participate in the annual Washington Music Educators Association (WMEA) junior all-state bands, choirs and orchestra. Quinn Tetrault, an eighth-grader at North Middle School who sings alto, was selected to join the mixed choir.

The WMEA junior all-state groups will meet Feb. 19, 2011, in Bellevue. These outstanding musicians will rehearse together under the direction of outstanding music educators and present a final concert that afternoon. These musicians were selected through auditions to participate in this prestigious event, which is sponsored by the WMEA.

Well-known Washingtonians who have participated in past years' WMEA all-state groups include The Seattle Post-Intelligencer's Pulitzer Prize-winning editorial cartoonist and columnist David Horsey, 2008 National Teacher of the Year Andrea Peterson and jazz saxophonist Kenny G.
