

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, classified school employees are involved in nearly every aspect of education, including maintaining school buildings and grounds, providing secretarial and clerical assistance, preparing and serving meals, providing safe transportation, keeping school facilities clean and orderly, assisting in the classroom, providing a secure environment, and many other specialized services; and

WHEREAS, these dedicated individuals deserve recognition and thanks for the outstanding work they are doing for this state, their communities, and the children enrolled in Washington's public schools; and

WHEREAS, there are nearly 50,000 classified school employees working with and helping children in Washington's public schools; and

WHEREAS, classified school employees are instrumental in fulfilling the state's paramount duty to educate children; and

WHEREAS, by supporting the learning environment, classified school employees are crucial partners with teachers, parents, administrators, and school boards in public schools;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Christine O. Gregoire, Governor of the state of Washington, do hereby proclaim March 14-18, 2011, as in Washington State and I urge all citizens to join me in this special observance.

Classified School Employee Week

Signed this 3rd day of January, 2011
