Cascade High DECA members compete at state conference

Three members qualify for international conference

On March 7 through March 9, Cascade High School (CHS) DECA took 14 DECA members to the State Career Development Conference in Bellevue. The CHS DECA members competed in a cross section of the events including role plays and written projects. The CHS DECA members who competed were able to exhibit the skills and knowledge which they have gained in the classroom in a competitive format.

This year Cascade School DECA is excited to congratulate the three members who qualified for the International Career Development Conference. The team of Erika Graf, Bria Jeanice and Emily Irwin placed sixth for their Chapter Awards Project which is a culmination of the events and activities which the Chapter completed over the past year. Emily Irwin also received a top 6 finish for her Written Entrepreneurship Manual which is a 30-page business plan which she wrote in the advanced marketing class. The International Career Development Conference will take place this April in Anaheim, California. All the CHS DECA members who attended had a wonderful time at the conference.
