Coming this fall - new website for Everett Public Schools

What the new site's features mean to you:

Parents, students and staff

MyView, is your personal portal – a perfect way to view in one place all the information that's most important to you. You can add, change and rearrange information you want as often as you want.

The planner filters events from district and school websites; you can add your own events. Parents and guardians can even add a tab for each child and view the planner for each. It's an easy, effective way to help busy families keep track of school events and activities all in one place.

"Responsive design" means you can read and use the new website on your computer, a tablet or your phone.

Community members

A new user-friendly website with layout and information that makes it easy to find what you want to know about your school district.

Get the latest web content through RSS feeds.

District staff

Interact with parents and students through blogs, online discussions, and wikis.

Showcase student work with photo galleries, podcasts and videos.

Easily create surveys with a point-and-click; store results using built-in reports or export to MS Excel.

Everett Public Schools does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, creed, religion, color, national origin, age, honorably discharged veteran or military status, sexual orientation including gender expression or identity, the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, or the use of a trained dog guide or service animal by a person with a disability in its programs and activities and provides equal access to the Boy Scouts and other designated youth groups. Designated to handle inquiries about nondiscrimination policies are: Affirmative Action Officer, Carol Stolz, 3715 Oakes Ave., Everett, WA 98201, 425-385-4106; Title IX Officer, Randi Seaberg, (at Oakes Ave. address), 425-385-4100; 504 Coordinator, Becky Ballbach, 4730 Colby Ave, Everett, WA 98203, 425-385-4063; ADA Coordinator, Kristine McDowell, (at Colby Ave. address), 425-385-5250. (Email address for each is FirstInitialLastName@everettsd.org)