

Moontalk Storyteller

Lois Ann Henry Landgrebe ʔəwəxʔdaʔ

Lois has had 20 years of storytelling experience and 19 years of learning/speaking the native Language, Lushootseed. Mrs. Landgrebe has attended workshops to enhance and enrich her storytelling talents through her work as a language teacher. Lois has told stories to countless audiences which range from pre-school to Adults. Lois' work has given her the edge to gain knowledge of the Puget Sound Culture and traditional teachings. She had worked closely with the late storyteller and speaker, Vi Hilbert. She has sat alongside of Rodger Fernandez. She accompanies her storytelling with songs and her hand drum. Miss Lois can also provide information on native designs and art work. Mrs. Landgrebe can also include puppetry in performance with additional fee or craft activity fee with a 20 minute craft activity.
