

News release

Jan. 30, 2015

For more information:

Mary Waggoner, Director of Communications, 425-385-4040

Kelly Shepherd, Port Gardner Parent Partnership Principal, 425-385-5150

Eighth-grade student earns top honors and moves to international competition

Poster captures the Peace, Love and Understanding theme

Port Gardner Parent Partnership student Sophia Nunn's poster took top honors locally and in the Seattle-Everett Lions District Peace Poster competition. Now the rose, dove and world flags design has won first place in the Lions Multidistrict Level contest (Washington, Northern Idaho and British Columbia).

"This is the first time anyone from Everett has made it this far in the process and is a great tribute to Sophia's artistic gifts as well as her insights regarding the theme," said Jim McNally, Lions Club member.

Her poster now goes to the International Level selection where her work will be viewed alongside others' from around the world. The ultimate winner will receive a trip to the United Nations and a cash prize.

