

A Focus on Blended Families Case Study

Case Study:

Take a moment and imagine that two children in a new blended family are moving into their new home. The two haven't lived together before. Now they will have to learn to get along with the new children. What problems do you predict happening? Please explain in a complete paragraph the problems and why you believe they will occur?

What are some special adjustments that are needed to live in a blended family?

Do you think it is easier to form a blended family when children are of similar ages or widely different ages? Explain in detail.

Suppose you were a man who married a woman with two children aged six and eight. What would you do to establish a relationship with the children?
