

Module 2: Child Growth and Development

Student Pre-assessment

Name _____ Per _____ Date _____

1. Fill in the blanks:

Child _____ refers to the gradual and predictable process of changes that occur while a child grows. This is different than _____ which means there is an increase in size and maturation. This is broken down into four categories, the first _____ which covers birth to 12 months, then _____ stage, followed by _____ and finally _____.

2. List the domains of child development:

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____

3. What are the three temperament "types" in children?

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____

4. True or False? The earliest years are the most critical for brain development.

5. When an educator or physician tells parents there are "red flags" in their child's development, what does that mean?

6. Define "executive function":

