

LEGISLATIVE SCHOLARS 2015

July 13 – 17, 2015
Capitol Campus in Olympia, WA

- Five day interactive experience for elementary, middle school, and high school social studies, government, history, and civics teachers
- Meet with legislators, staff, agency representatives, and civic education organizations
- Learn how the legislative, executive, and judicial branches interact
- Learn where to find and how to use legislative resources available to the public
- Meet with Supreme Court Justice Mary Fairhurst and tour the Supreme Court
- Participate in a mock committee hearing led by a legislator
- Develop lesson plans for classroom use

Apply Online

Applications due by June 26, 2015. Attendance is limited to 25. Visit our webpage to fill out an online application: <http://www.leg.wa.gov/ScholarProgram/Pages/default.aspx>

Clock Hours Available

Teachers can receive up to 35 clock hours through ESD 113. (Depending on final approval)

Contact

Civic.Ed@leg.wa.gov

360-786-7993 or 360-786-7016

The Legislative Scholar Program is produced by the nonpartisan Civic Education offices of the Washington State Senate and House of Representative as a source of professional development and classroom resources for educators. It is not an opportunity to learn about political advocacy or lobbying.

All program materials and some meals (snacks, daily continental breakfast, four lunches, one dinner) are provided by the Legislature. Participants are responsible for their own travel, lodging, and remaining meals.