Everett High Principal is League Principal of the Year

Dr. Sally Lancaster recognized by Association of Washington School Principals

Association of Washington School Principals (AWSP) representatives Aaron Fletcher and Scott Seaman wrote, "... sincere congratulations to you as the WESCO 3A/4A League Principal of the Year. The contributions you have made to your school, your students and your community are noteworthy and deserving of recognition. The responsibilities of principals are many and significant, but too often go unrecognized."

Lancaster and other league principals of the year will be recognized at the AWSP Summer

Conference in June in Spokane.

Lancaster will become Assistant Superintendent for Everett Public Schools on July 1.
