THINKING ABOUT OR APPLYING TO?

Colleges I'm Thinking About vs. Colleges I'm Applying To

In Naviance Family Connection there are two types of lists with different purposes.

The colleges I'm thinking about list is where you want to keep the names of colleges that you are interested in and want to refer back to.

The colleges I'm applying to list is where you move the names of your preferred colleges and actually plan to submit your application.

Colleges I'm Applying To

For each college you apply to you will need to request your transcript to be sent.

When you request a transcript the registrar at your school will send it.

Next to the name of each school you will see a submissions icon. These indicate the delivery type.

Mail Only

Common App Mail Only

Electronic

When you see the Electronic icon, you will be able to submit your application online.

You can access the college website admissions page by clicking the Apply online button.

This will also indicate to your school registrar how the transcript can be sent.

Mail Only

When you see the Mail Only icon, it will indicate to your school registrar to send your transcript by mail.

You will want to visit the college website to determine if you can apply online or print off an application to be mailed.

Common App

These icons indicate that the submission of the application will go through Common App.

The first icon indicates that the college only accepts Common App.

The next icon indicates that the college will accept Common App or electronic applications but you will need to choose.

The last icon indicates that the college only accepts Common App but your transcript will need to be mailed.
