INNOVATION EXPO JUNE 6

Interact at booths from community organizations and every school at this year's Innovation Expo June 6, 5-8 p.m., at Angel of the Winds (formerly Xfinity) Arena. Each school's booth is different and showcases something the students are learning. Community partners join in the fun with their own interactive booths representing innovation of regional industry.

The STEM competition is a favorite part of the event for many attendees. See the best student projects from around the district and hear what the students learned by doing them.

Everett Mayor Cassie Franklin will emcee the STEM competition awards ceremony and AquaSox's Webby will be a special guest. The event is free and open to all ages.

Looking for judges

This year over 200 students will participate in the Innovation Expo Student STEM Competition. Please consider volunteering to judge student projects using this online form. Additional judging information will be sent to those who register prior to the event.

Judging training: 4:15-5 p.m.

Judging: 5-6:30 p.m.

VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION

This week is Public School Volunteer Week. Please take a moment to thank any volunteers who help in classrooms, on playgrounds, in offices, in science resource facilities, on field trips and anywhere else in our district. Students and staff depend on volunteers and benefit so much from their countless hours.

OPPORTUNITIES – for students and staff

1. Innovation in Education Grants - Applications due April 20

Safeway and Albertsons are proud to announce another round of the Innovation in Education Grants for 2018! Educators working with kids in grades K-12 can enter by submitting ideas for creative projects in literacy, math, reading, science, health, art, engineering and social studies. Innovation is encouraged, as well as unique ideas and unorthodox approaches. To apply go to www.safewayfoundation.org and click "Get Funded." Winners will be announced the week of May 7-11.

2. Evergreen Arboretum events, April 21

In honor of Earth Day, families are invited to Frog Fest, April 21 from noon to 2 p.m. RSVP required. Free for members/$10 non-members. Students will plant native plants in the new native garden and take a plant home. See flyer for details and for other upcoming events.

3. Farmer Frog externships for staff and camps for students

Farmer Frog is once again offering clock hour-qualifying externships for teachers and summer camp for children. Details are on the Farmer Frog website.

4. CTE video contest

The Workforce Board's video project, which encourages middle and high school students throughout the state to create their own videos to promote CTE (Career and Technical Education), has a video contest! The first three students who submit videos to the CTE "Get Real" Video Challenge that meet contest guidelines can win a $25 gift card, or up to $75 per team. The deadline is June 15, so get out your video camera, cell phone or tablet right away! All completed videos will be featured on CareerBridge.wa.gov so fame is guaranteed. More details are on the Workforce Board website. Print a flyer for your classroom.

5. MathFest, May 19
