

News release

May 2, 2018

Celebrating 20-year partnership supporting the arts in the Everett Public Schools

Andrew Culver with Superintendent Gary Cohn in front of artwork

Everett—For the past 20 years, the Everett Public Schools Foundation has supported the arts in Everett Public Schools through hosting high school and middle school art shows.

In addition, the foundation has provided funds to purchase an art piece created by a high school student chosen from the show by the superintendent.

Twenty years of Superintendent's Choice awards are on display in the district's Community Resource Center.

This year, Andrew Culver, a student from Cascade High School was the winner. Culver received $200 for his artwork and the foundation will frame the piece and present to the school district for permanent display at the Community Resource Center.

'Kenny'

---end---

For more information:

Leanna Albrecht, Director of Communications, 425-385-4040

Kristie Dutton, Executive Director, 425-385-4693