The designated beneficiary(ies) will receive any monies due at the time of your death. If you have money in more than one retirement system, you must complete a separate form for each system.

If you are a survivor of a retiree, please list the retiree's name and Social Security number.

For each beneficiary, check whether you wish to make that person or entity a primary or contingent beneficiary. When naming a person, always show given names. For example: MARY K. DOE (not Mrs. Robert Doe).

You may designate more than one beneficiary. If you do, the funds will be divided equally among all named beneficiaries unless otherwise specified or required by law. Your primary beneficiary(ies) will receive any monies in your account at the time of your death. If your primary beneficiary(ies) is(are) unable to accept the distribution, your contingent beneficiary(ies) will receive the distribution.

Make a copy of your beneficiary designation and review it periodically to ensure that it is still valid.

Section Three: Beneficiary Designation for $150,000 Death Benefit

If your death occurs as a result of injuries sustained during the course of employment or an occupational disease or infection that arose naturally and proximately out of employment, a $150,000 death benefit is available. Eligibility for this benefit is determined by the Department of Labor and Industries. You may designate the same beneficiary(ies) listed in Section Two by checking the box by the statement below - OR - you may designate a new beneficiary by completing the requested information. If you designate more than one beneficiary for the $150,000 benefit, it will be divided equally among the named beneficiaries unless otherwise specified or required by law. If there is no designated beneficiary still living at the time of your death, the death benefit will be paid to your surviving spouse. If there is no surviving spouse, the benefit will be paid to your legal representative.

Note: JRS members and survivors of all retirement systems are NOT eligible for this benefit and should NOT complete Section Three.

 ☐ I designate the beneficiary(ies) named in Section Two to be the same beneficiary(ies) eligible for the $150,000 death benefit.
