Career Interest Profiler Results

The categories are defined and the number of career matches in each are noted with a number.

The screenshot shows the Naviance Student interface. On the left is a 'Quick Links' sidebar with two sections: 'EXPLORE CAREERS' containing 'Favorite careers and clusters' and 'Explore careers and clusters', and 'WHAT ARE MY INTERESTS?' containing 'Career cluster finder' and 'Career interest profiler' (which is underlined). The main area is titled 'Career Interest Profiler' and shows a progress bar with three steps: 'Intro' (checked), 'Profile Questions' (checked), and 'STEP 3 View Results' (active). Below the progress bar, it says 'Completed on May 22, 2018'. The 'Your Results' section lists three categories: 'Artistic' with a score of 19 (circled in red), 'Social' with a score of 15, and 'Enterprising' with a score of 9. Each category has a brief description of the types of occupations it involves.

Childcare Workers

Career Job Zone: Some Preparation

Overall Experience

Some previous work-related skill, knowledge, or experience may be helpful in these occupations, but usually is not needed.

Education

These occupations usually require a high school diploma and may require some vocational training or job-related course work. In some cases, an associate's or bachelor's degree could be needed.

Job Training

Employees in these occupations need anywhere from a few months to one year of working with experienced employees.

Examples

These occupations often involve using your knowledge and skills to help others. Examples include sheet metal workers, forest fire fighters, customer service representatives, pharmacy technicians, salespersons (retail), and bank tellers

Career Job Zone: Medium Preparation

Overall Experience

Previous work-related skill, knowledge, or experience is required for these occupations. For example, an electrician must have completed three or four years of apprenticeship or several years of vocational training, and often must have passed a licensing exam, in order to perform the job.

Education

Most occupations in this zone require training in vocational/technical schools, related on-the-job experience, or an associate's degree. Some may require a bachelor's degree.

Job Training

Employees in these occupations usually need one or two years of training involving both on-the-job experience and informal training with experienced workers.

Examples

These occupations usually involve using communication and organizational skills to coordinate, supervise, manage, or train others to accomplish goals. Examples include funeral directors, electricians, forest and conservation technicians, legal secretaries, interviewers, and insurance sales agents.

Career Job Zone: Considerable Preparation

Overall Experience

A minimum of two to four years of work-related skill, knowledge, or experience is needed for these occupations. For example, an accountant must complete four years of college and work for several years in accounting to be considered qualified.

Education

Most of these occupations require a four - year bachelor's degree, but some do not.

Job Training

Employees in these occupations usually need several years of work-related experience, on-the-job training, and/or vocational/technical training.

Examples

Many of these occupations involve coordinating, supervising, managing, or training others. Examples include accountants, human resource managers, computer programmers, teachers, chemists, and police detectives.

Career Job Zone: Extensive Preparation

Overall Experience

Extensive skill, knowledge, and experience are needed for these occupations. Many require more than five years of experience. For example, surgeons must complete four years of college and an additional five to seven years of specialized medical training to be able to do their job.

Education

A bachelor's degree is the minimum formal education required for these occupations. However, many also require graduate school. For example, they may require a master's degree, and some require a Ph.D., M.D., or J.D. (law degree).

Job Training

Employees may need some on-the-job training, but most of these occupations assume that the person will already have the required skills, knowledge, work-related experience, and/or training.

Examples

These occupations often involve coordinating, training, supervising, or managing the activities of others to accomplish goals. Very advanced communication and organizational skills are required. Examples include librarians, lawyers, aerospace engineers, physicists, school psychologists, and surgeons.
