

Jackson HS Information Technology Pathway

Estimated/final completion date August 2024

Description: This project includes the conversion of two general ed classrooms and associated equipment for the creation of a new STEM career pathway program.

Updates:

December 5, 2022: The planning team continues to meet regularly to design an information and technology pathway program.

October 25, 2022: The planning team, made up of employees from LITS, CTE, and Facilities, has visited Bellevue and Newport High Schools to review a communication CTE program and a high-end information and technology CTE program at these respective schools. The planning team continues to meet regularly to design an information and technology pathway program.