Spring Spirit Week

We will be having a spirit week for the whole school this week. The flyer is attached, but here are the specifics as well:

- Monday: Comfy Monday (pjs, sweats, whatever makes you comfy)
- Tuesday: Spring into Color (Pastels)
- Wednesday: Jersey Wednesday (not like the state; nobody wants to dress like that)
- Thursday: Tropical Thursday (this matches our assembly theme)
- Friday: JHS Friday

3rd Quarter IPRs (Interim Progress Reports)

Third quarter grading will wrap around Spring Break, with TAC opening before break and closing after we return from break. Please review my March 27 email for detailed instructions and timeline. DeeAnn

Important Reminders Regarding Classroom Phones

Staff, I have been noticing the following:

1. Voicemail boxes not set-up
2. No dial tone
3. Phone volume is low
4. Teachers not answering phone calls from the main office or admin
5. Teachers completely unplugging the phones in the classrooms

Attached are the phone set-up instructions. Please take time to complete the full set-up.

Also, I ask that you please answer the phone when the office is calling. Thank you, Sukawt

Students on the Seatbelt List

Attached is a list of students who are on the seatbelt list. Please contact Jennifer Larson at ext. 7017 in the main office if the student needs to leave class. Thank you, Lori Wirtz

Inclusive Practices

With Multicultural Night coming up, this is a perfect time for all of us to reflect on inclusive practices in the classroom and beyond. Small yet impactful strategies—such as using diverse materials that reflect different cultures, abilities, and perspectives—help all students feel represented and valued. Encouraging student voice through collaborative discussions and varied assessment methods ensures that all learners can engage in ways that work best for them. Clear expectations for respectful interactions set the tone for an inclusive community. Most important of all, building strong relationships by learning about students' backgrounds and interests fosters a sense of belonging.

We are doing great work with inclusion, and part of that work is always looking for ways to improve. Thank you, Jackson staff! Sechin

Time Trades (teachers only)

As a reminder, if you are not able to attend graduation on Saturday, June 14, at 7 p.m., you can instead trade time to work on Multicultural Night. Please let your supervisor know if you would like to make this trade.

Remember, we have only two “time trades” instead of previous years when we had three “callbacks,” and attending either Multicultural Night or graduation is what enables you to leave for Spring Break 2.5 hours early on Friday, April 4! Sechin

THANK YOU for Today! [March 25 Unplanned Evacuation]

JHS staff—thank you for keeping grounded and maintaining organization today. Everywhere I went I saw you keeping your calm demeanor and sense of humor, despite whatever inconvenience, apprehension, and/or frustration this situation may have caused you.

Every day in education is an adventure! Today you showed yourselves to be great role-models for JHS students. With deep gratitude, Sechin

My Prom-naugural Request

To misquote President John F. Kennedy:

In the long history of JHS, only a few generations have been granted the role of defending learning and school culture in its hour of maximum danger. I do not shrink from this responsibility—I welcome it. I do not believe that any of us would exchange places with any other people or any other generation. The energy, the faith, the devotion which we bring to this endeavor will light our school and all who serve it—and the glow from that fire can truly light the world.

And so, my fellow Timberwolves: ask not what your school can do for you—ask what you can do for your school.

I am humbly asking, as your Co-Senior Class Advisor, that you help us chaperone prom this year. Please email me if you have been moved by my speech and/or would be interested in chaperoning prom on Saturday, May 3, at MoPop (The Museum of Pop Culture in Seattle).

The official chaperone time will be within the 7:30–11 p.m. window, though prom starts for students at 8 p.m. We'd also love if you invited your significant other to join you! If you're interested, I'll get you more details as the date approaches. If you're on the fence and would like more information, please swing by room C-205. Thank you for considering. Preparing for Synergy: ParentVue, StudentVue, & TeacherVue

from March issue of Doc's Dugout

As Everett Public Schools transitions to Synergy, our new student information system (SIS), staff should be aware that families and students will recognize it by different names. ParentVue and StudentVue are the platforms families and students will use to access information, while TeacherVue is the version designed specifically for educators.

Training for many staff will begin in April, with teachers receiving their training in August. Please visit the Synergy implementation webpage for more information.

Teacher Preferences for 2025-26

If you haven't already filled out your teaching preferences survey, this would be an ideal time to do so. If you have filled it out but want to add or change something, simply fill it out again—I will delete all but the most recent submission from each person, so be complete.

I don't have the capacity to track multiple emails with updated preferences, hallway conversations, or past practices, so please make no assumptions about what I know outside of what you add here:
