

March 16, 2020 – message to families

Voicemail:

Good afternoon.

This is Everett Public Schools with a quick reminder to please check your email or visit our website at www.everettsd.org for today's update on information related to the Coronavirus, including athletics, the call center, spring break, how to translate our website into various languages, student engagement and learning support and the April 2020 Bond.

Thank you all so much.

Email (with letter attached from March 16):

Hello, Everett Public School Families...

Please see the attached letter from Dr. Saltzman.

Thank you all so much and have a great rest of your day!
