

Central Region Principals Meeting
CRC – Port Gardner Room A
Wednesday, October 28, 2020
7:30 – 8:30 a.m.

Learning Targets:

- We can connect key characteristics and themes of leadership to our own leadership.
- We can create conditions for success in the transition to the hybrid environment.

Time	Activities	Facilitator
7:30 – 7:35	Welcome	Sally
7:35 – 7:50	Key Characteristics of Leadership • Watch “The Essence of Leadership” • Debrief: What are the key characteristics of leadership?	Sally
7:50 – 8:20	Preparing to Transition to Hybrid • Hybrid Part I ○ With the information you have on family preferences for hybrid and for 100% remote, what are the implications / next steps related to ▪ Re-staffing ▪ Special programs ▪ Teacher & paraeducator communication • Hybrid Part II ○ Role play conversations with parents ▪ Options to remain with current teacher ▪ A family changing their mind at semester (from hybrid to remote, or vice versa) ▪ Serving special education students on a differentiated, Tier 3-type basis • What information do principals need to effectively engage in (re)staffing to hybrid?	Principals
8:20 – 8:30	Debrief role play above as larger group	ALL
8:25 – 8:30	Closing	Sally

“If you are going to achieve excellence in big things, you develop the habit in little matters.”

– Colin Powell

