

Professional Learning

Inquiry-Based Tutoring in Math Handouts

Table of Contents

Socratic Tutorial Process.....	1
Tutorial Inquiry Form.....	2
30-Second Speech Protocol.....	3
The Reading Process for Socratic Tutorials.....	4
Inquiry Learning Process aligned with Socratic Tutorial Process.....	5

The AVID for Higher Education Socratic Tutorial Process

Tutorial Inquiry Form		Student:
Course:	Tutor:	Date:
Initial Question/Problem:
Key vocabulary and terms associated with topic/question:
What resources do I have or need to help me?
What do I know about the question? (Use extra paper as needed)
What is my point of confusion and where do I get stuck?

The 30-Second Speech Student Presenter Protocol

---

Study group sessions provide a forum for students to practice public speaking and presentation skills in a safe and supportive environment. Once a student has completed the pre-work inquiry and identified a point of confusion question for the study group session, it is important that they initiate a discussion through a 30-Second Speech. Students need to know how to present their question in a way that will create engagement, inquiry, and critical thinking with group members.

Students should refer to the pre-work completed on the Tutorial Inquiry Form (TIF) and give the 30-Second Speech to the study group before the group members begin the critical thinking/inquiry process.

The steps for presenting a question are as follows:

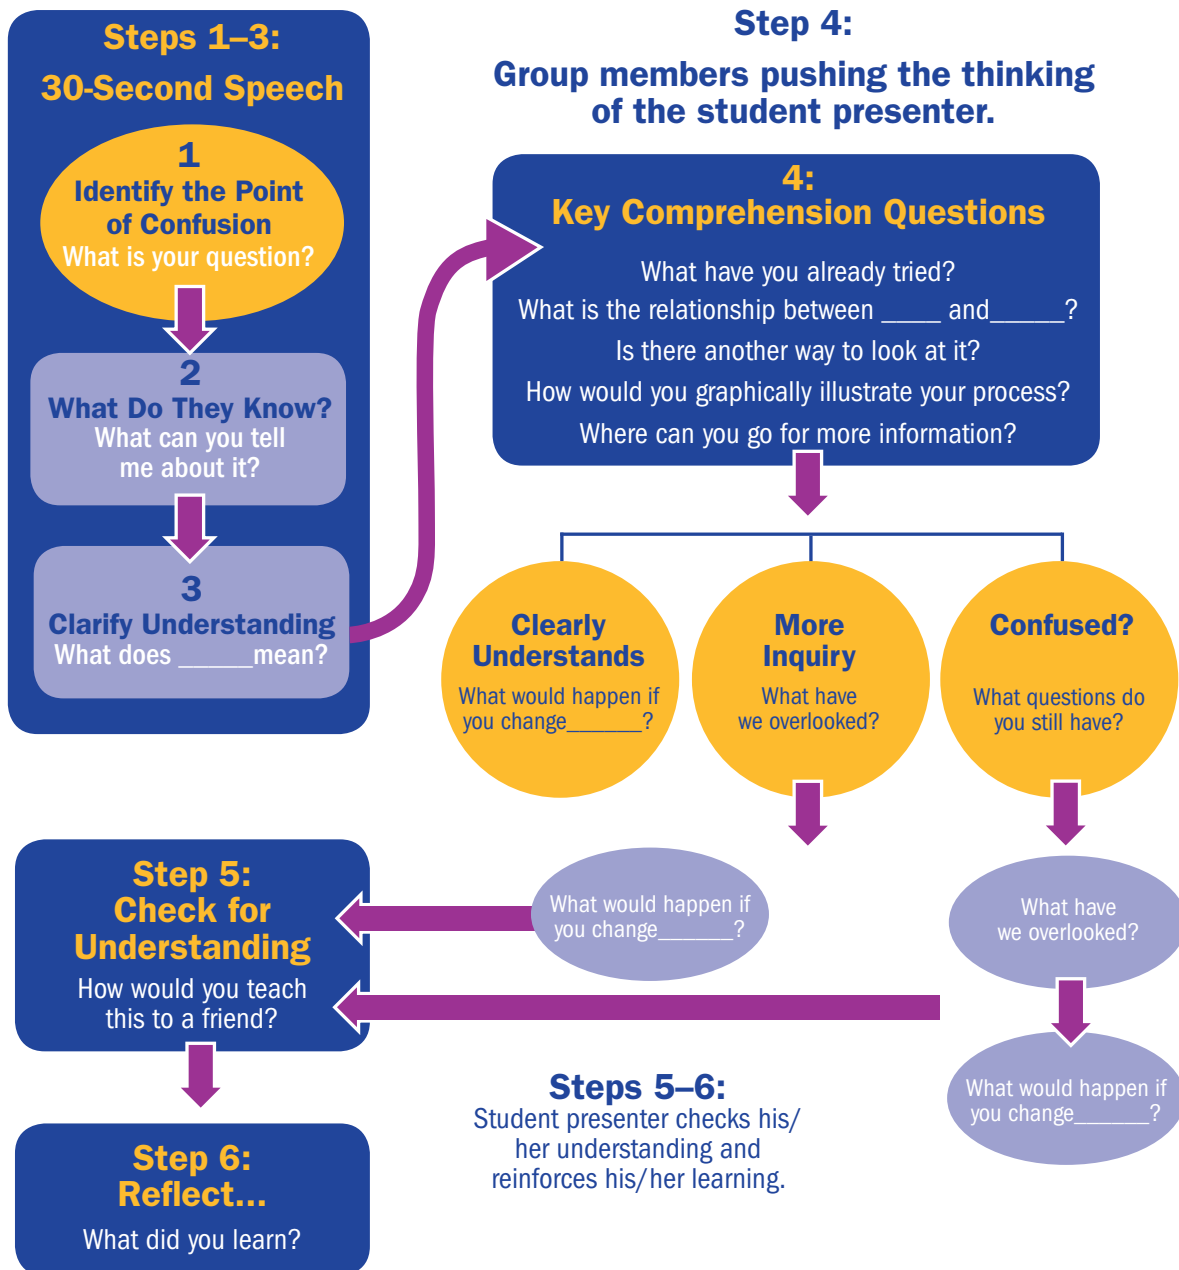

Step	Description	Might Sound Like ...
1	Read your question generated from your point of confusion to your study group.	My question from my pre-work is ... My question from my point of confusion is ...
2	Share what you know about your question.	The academic vocabulary I needed to know to do my pre-work and to write my question is ... What I know about my question is ...
3	Share your pre-work.	Last night I was able to complete ... This is as far as I was able to do it on my own ...
4	Share your point of confusion.	My point of confusion is ... What I don't understand is ...
5	Ask your study group members to begin the questioning process.	What questions do you have to assist me in understanding my point of confusion?

Resource from AHE Socratic Tutorial Support Guide

The Reading Process for Socratic Tutorials

Stage	Description
Plan for Reading:	The goal is to establish a purpose for reading and to help students understand expectations for outcomes of the reading. Includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Understanding the instructor’s reading prompt</li> <li>• Deconstructing the reading prompt or task</li> <li>• Developing a plan for reading the text</li> </ul>
Build Vocabulary:	Occurring throughout the reading process, the students build their academic vocabulary to understand the text and then to speak or write accurately about their understanding. Includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Building background knowledge about important words students encounter in the text</li> <li>• Learning new words from context within the reading</li> <li>• Identifying words/phrases within the text that require repeated practice and study to retain and use them effectively</li> </ul>
Pre-Read:	The goal is to preview the text to determine how best to read it and to prime the brain so it is ready to engage with the reading. Includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Asking questions or making predictions</li> <li>• Identifying the structure of the text and determining reading strategies</li> <li>• Making connections to prior knowledge or building background knowledge</li> </ul>
Interact with the Text:	The goal is to actively engage with the text to create meaning—the reader “talks back” to the text to figure it out. Includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Marking the text and annotating/writing in the margin for strategic purposes (connecting, summarizing, questioning, etc.)</li> <li>• Using multiple methods for analyzing the text and tracing an author’s reasoning or narrative</li> <li>• Identifying and interpreting main ideas to build a more complex understanding of the text</li> </ul>
Extend Beyond the Text:	The goal is to push beyond the text to summarize it, consider its significance, and determine how it fits into the world. Includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Examining the meaning of the text and evaluating its significance</li> <li>• Synthesizing multiple interpretations or multiple texts to arrive at new or more complex conclusions</li> <li>• Figuring out how this text resonates with other texts, history, current experiences, and events in the world</li> </ul>

Inquiry Learning Process Aligned with the 6-Step AHE Socratic Tutorial Process

Adapted from Comparison by Andrew Churches at <http://edorigami.wikispaces.com/Bloom%27s+Digital+Taxonomy> and http://ww2.odu.edu/educ/roverbau/Bloom/blooms\_taxonomy.htm