

Natural Leaders!

A group of parents that celebrate diversity

Who are Natural Leaders? Natural Leaders are multi-cultural parents and family members that serve as bridge between families, schools, and community.

Why are they needed? Natural Leaders represent the diversity of their school communities. Honoring their experiences and listening to their voice ensures more equity and access for all students.

What do they do?

- Engage in new learning to support their goals.
- Create events families want and need.
- Build relationships with families and staff.
