EVERETT PUBLIC SCHOOLS
FOUNDATION

MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD PRESIDENT

Dear Foundation Supporters:

As you review this Annual Report, remember that YOU make this work possible!

In this report, you will see that the Foundation has continued its mission of ensuring that all students in Everett Public Schools have the resources and programs they need for success and well-being. Although we faced challenges, the Foundation remained focused on prioritizing essential, student-facing programs. You'll read about many of those programs in this report, including our amazing early learning programs, classroom grants for teachers, inclusive libraries, and of course, our annual Stuff the Bus for Kids school supply drive. We remain determined to serve students at all levels across all our schools – from north to south and from kindergarten through graduation and beyond.

We recognize and celebrate the contributions of you – our donors, business partners, volunteers, and supporters – that enable us to continue this vital work. We also recognize that charitable giving and volunteer service are choices that you make, and we want to thank you for continuing to choose the Everett Public Schools Foundation as a steward for your contributions.

We look forward to continuing to serve our community together in the coming year.

With Gratitude,

Kristy

Kristy Mothersbaugh

EPSF President 2023-2024

DONATE

Based on our rating you can trust that your donations are going to a financially responsible and ethical charity when you decide to support the Foundation. We are honored to be recognized by these both locally and nationally for our work.

Your Gift to EPSF ensure student's needs, programs and educators that are not funded through local, state, and federal sources have funds available to the 20,434+ students in Everett Public Schools.

Message from the Superintendent

Every year I am amazed and grateful for our partnership with Everett Public Schools Foundation. Every person who contributes to the Foundation is engaging our youngest learners to ensure a great start to their school careers by continuing to invest in early learning, all the way up to providing career and college scholarships. In between, you support the Family Resource Center, unsheltered youth, and social workers through the immediate need fund. You provide Diversity, Equity and Inclusion grants and over 60 classroom grants inspiring innovation in our amazing teachers. The impact goes beyond the things listed here, and all from your generous contributions. Everett Public Schools Foundation is our key partner in ensuring that your generosity touches every student and school across our district. Thank you to every family, community member, and local business for your partnership in supporting our kids and schools!

Dr. Ian B. Saltzman
Everett Public Schools Superintendent

MISSION & VISION STATEMENT

The Everett Public Schools Foundation supports all students to have the programs and resources they need for success and well-being. With a vision that students in Everett Public Schools will lead, and shape the future.

OUR WORK

The Everett Public Schools Foundation has been a vital partner in the district and community since 1985. We play a unique role, providing funding that would otherwise not be available from State and Federal funding for innovative and critical programs that support student success and well-being.

The Foundation is committed to continuing our journey to evolve, improve, and enhance our work with students, the district and our community increasing our lens of diversity, equity, and inclusion. The journey has guided us to challenge the scope of our work and continue creating access, support, and awareness through the programs we support. Last year adding support for the special services program and supporting mental health and wellness.

WHO WE ARE

Land Acknowledgment

"We respectfully acknowledge that we are on the traditional lands of the Coast Salish, Snohomish and Tulalip Peoples, as we begin to heal. Everett Public Schools and Foundation are committed to improving the relationship and identifying indigenous people, exploring our true selves. We express our deepest respect and gratitude to the ancestors of this land. We strive to create equitable outcomes and build a culture of inclusive belonging for all students, teachers, staff, and community!"

DIVERSITY, EQUITY AND INCLUSION

EPS Foundation recognizes that educational excellence requires a commitment to equity. Everett's students bring a wide range of assets, abilities, backgrounds, and needs to their educational experience. This requires removing barriers that perpetuate inequities which lead to opportunity and achievement gaps.

The EPS Foundation is equity-driven, making intentional decisions that combat institutional discrimination and bias (both explicit and implicit). And eliminate disparities in educational outcomes based on socioeconomic status, gender, gender identity, gender expression, race, religion, national origin, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability, or family background.

Annually, our students academically outperform the state average and demonstrate year over year improvement in most categories, as well as outperforming neighboring school districts in most measures. And, thanks to our hardworking educators, success is within reach for all our students with an increased emphasis on reading at early levels, strong monitoring and collaboration, and core focus on climate, culture, systems, and instruction. We are pleased but not satisfied and continue to work towards improvement.

CLASSROOM GRANTS

EPS Foundation recognizes that educational excellence requires a commitment to equity. Everett's students bring a wide range of assets, abilities, backgrounds, and needs to their educational experience. This requires removing barriers that perpetuate inequities which lead to opportunity and achievement gaps.

◆ Jackson Elementary: Margo Gough

"Ready...Set...Read!"

"This project is comprised of the 5 elements of the Science of Reading which are: comprehension, fluency, vocabulary, phonics, and phonemic awareness. By using these tools to break down the sounds of words, they will be able to decode unfamiliar words."

◆ Cedar Wood Elementary: Jamie Lynn Klontz

"Fostering Bi-literacy, Inclusivity, and Multiculturalism through Bilingual Books!"

"We purchased bilingual books in Spanish, Arabic, Ukrainian, Russian, Tamil, Teluga, Portuguese, Gujarati, Korean, Mandarin, Chinese, and Vietnamese. These are some of the most spoken languages at our school other than English. All students have the opportunity to learn about different cultures and read books by authors who represent different cultures than their own from many of these books".

◆ Monroe Elementary: Lisa Noble

"Future Engineers- Building Bridges together."

"This grant allowed our students to take the knowledge of building bridges from the district's stem kit a step further. Our readers/non-readers/ ML/gifted students could access building these bridges by using the picture directions instead of written English directions. What I loved the most, was that their communication skills were strengthened with each other while building as a team."

◆ Woodside Elementary: Stacy Story

"Outdoor Sensory Wiggles."

"The children have loved having this to use during recess. Neuro divergent students also use it for breaks during class time. This provides a sensory break for our diverse neuro divergent population and gives them something to do at recess if they are unable to do the monkey bars or slide."

◆ Forest View Elementary: Michele J Hoyer

"Physical Education is for Everybody"

"This grant purchased adapted physical education equipment that helped students crawl, hit balloons with the badminton paddles, throw and kick sensory balls, and dribble basketballs. The equipment allowed other students who have physical limitations to still use equipment, have fun, and be successful. The focus of the grant was to ensure students with developmental delays can participate successfully in physical education class. "

◆ Madison Elementary: Laura Beckett

"Watch How We Grow!"

"We started a controlled experiment with two different soils: last year's garden soil and our new raised garden bed soil. Students predicted which soil would grow our seeds best. We all planted wildflower seeds and they are currently starting to sprout under the grow lights in our STEAM classroom."

◆ Cascade High School: Amalia Pimenta and Jen Stockdal

"Multi-Language Learners Success through Reading and Research."

"Using Hi-Lo (High Interest-Low Reading level) books, they were able to engage the MLL population with reading materials designed for their levels. As you can imagine, it is difficult to find high interest books with readability that also have teen appeal for a high school library. The MLL population is as diverse as it gets, but everyone was able to find some book to connect with! This grant created place and space in the library for ALL users."

A TRADITION OF CREATING OPPORTUNITIES AND BUILDING FUTURES

The Emma Yule Society is the heart of our Foundation and was formed to allow those who care about continued learning and academic opportunity, a chance to participate in making a difference for local students. Emma Yule was a bright and courageous young woman who served as Everett's first and only teacher in December 1891. In honor of her tradition of excellence, the Everett Public Schools Foundation created the Emma Yule Society. Through the Emma Yule Society, you can assist in providing needed educational assistance to local youth. Your investment in the future is a gift that will last a lifetime. Our annual giving society has three levels of distinction to recognize your generous support:
