LIFE AFTER HIGH SCHOOL

Ready for What Comes Next?

Often well-meaning people ask “what are you doing after high school” as soon as you start your senior year.

This can be stressful and the important thing to remember is to find the right FIT for you!

As you go through your senior year, use the figure out what you want to do and develop your PLAN for after high school graduation.

Glossary for Post-Secondary Terms

Certificate of Completion — Awarded in many technical and career fields and designed to prepare graduates for employment. Typically programs are one year in length and can lead to an associate degree.

Associate Degree — A two-year college degree awarded at a community or technical college upon completion of coursework (i.e. Associate of Arts; Associate of Science).

Bachelor Degree — A four-year college degree at a university, college, also offered at some two-year colleges. Awarded upon completion of all coursework. (i.e. Bachelor of Arts; Bachelor of Science).

Glossary for Post-Secondary Terms

Open Admission — An admission policy that accepts students without regard to the criteria of grade point average and/or test scores.

Regular Admission — The application process that requires application materials to be submitted no later than the specified deadline. Admission responses are usually received in March.

Early Action — An admission plan used primarily in highly selective colleges. Under Early Action, you follow an accelerated application process and usually apply by November 1. You will be notified of a decision by mid-December, but, if you are accepted, you do not have to let the institution know of your decision until May 1.

Early Decision — An admission plan well-qualified applicants who are definitely committed to their choice of college. Applicants will be notified of their acceptance or refusal in December. Acceptance under Early Decision requires you to withdraw applications at other colleges.

Guaranteed Admissions Program (GAP)

To qualify for the Guaranteed Admissions Program, a student must have:

- A minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 (GPA of 3.3 for Pacific Lutheran University)
- Completed necessary College Academic Distribution Requirements (CADR) courses in high school (typically mirrors high school grad requirements)
- Completed the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) Form (which is included in the student handbook, the enrollment form, or annual student information update) and provided permission to share high school student information with colleges.

If all of these are true or the student is on track to meet these criteria by high school graduation, GAP guarantees the student will be admitted to all participating institutions.
