

October 2024 Core Value: Learning

School	Student Name	Why they were nominated
Cedar Wood	Grace Chilton	Grace tries her best every day!
Emerson	Isabella Smith	Izzy embodies the spirit of learning at Emerson Elementary with her incredible dedication and hard work. Her persistence in tackling challenges showcases her strong growth mindset, always believing in the power of yet. Izzy proves that effort and resilience lead to amazing growth and success with each new activity, lesson, or project!
Forest View	Harini Anand	Harini is new to Forest View this year and has done an amazing job acclimating to a new school. She not only asks questions if/when her understanding breaks down but also shares her thinking and ideas with her peers. She is an extremely hard worker, participates in class, and applies what she learns.
Garfield	Mischa Robson	Mischa is very focused and takes her learning seriously. She's always trying her best and is willing to help her. She is a respectful learner willing to share her ideas and thoughts with the class.
Hawthorne	Fatima Flores	Fatima takes ownership of her learning every day by trying her best, focusing on her work, and asking for help. She participated in our summer learning program and Jump Start for 4th graders. She has not missed a day of school this year, and she is a leader in her class and learning groups. Fatima will go far with her positive attitude, perseverance, and strong work ethic.
Jackson	Layla Alvarez	Layla consistently works to do her very best in school. She asks questions to clarify her understanding of concepts and participates actively in lessons. She has a positive attitude and is always happy to be a thought partner with other students.
Jefferson	Lucas Heen	Lucas always likes to challenge himself, and he perseveres when he encounters something new that challenges his thinking. He is never satisfied and always wants to learn more.
Lowell	Alfrington Nenam	Alfrington participates actively in his learning! He pushes himself to do his best, engages with questions and connections, and asks for feedback.

		He comes to school early to do work, and I am very proud of him. Keep going, leopard!
Madison	Lizeth Lozano Garcia	Lizeth earned the "Learning" nomination in October for her dedication and enthusiasm in class. She consistently puts forth her best effort, encourages her classmates, and maintains a positive uplifting attitude. Her commitment to learning and supporting others makes her a standout in the classroom.
Mill Creek	Emma Younan	Emma is a dedicated student with a true love of learning. She asks questions, seeks out new knowledge, and lights up when she learns something new. Emma's infectious love of learning is contagious to all those around her. She also supports and coaches her classmates whenever there is a need. Keep learning, Emma!
Monroe	Julian Boe-Flores	Julian always has his mind in the game. He is tenacious in his quest for knowledge and always seeks opportunities to learn more.
Penny Creek	Alina Baranova	Alina is always positive in her classes and a role model for all.
Port Gardner K-12	Bradley Everetts	Bradley is a dedicated student who strives for excellence. He contributes to class discussions and always goes above and beyond in all subject areas. He challenges himself and his peers to dig deeper into all learning situations. He is a quiet learner who helps others find solutions to problems. Bradley is also a joy to have in class and embodies a student who will be a lifelong learner who will contribute to his community. Bradley is also an amazing artist who loves sharing his art techniques with his peers. Congratulations Bradley!
Silver Firs	Rebecca Lanman	Rebecca has consistently radiated a zest for learning in the classroom. She not only engages and participates in all classroom discourse but always finds opportunities to extend her and others' learning. Rebecca often comes to class sharing research on topics we learned in class that she took the initiative to research at home.
Silver Lake	Brandon Cruz	Brandon always gives 100% to his work. He asks questions about how to improve his work and takes pride in getting his work done on time. Most importantly, Brandon has a curious mind and amazing growth mindset, which are essential to learning.

Tambark Creek	Araya Singh	Araya is engaged during every lesson, kind to peers, and thoughtful and respectful to teachers.
View Ridge	Eden Daniel	Eden is a dedicated learner in the classroom every minute of every day! She shares her thinking in a way that shows her understanding and strives to complete each learning activity to the best of her ability. She is also a kind-hearted leader who shares her learning with others in a way that helps the classroom community to grow.
Whittier	June Sanchez	June wants to learn, and it shows in how hard she works and how closely she pays attention during learning times. She always puts in her best effort and produces quality work. She also wants her friends to be learners and is willing to help when someone is stuck.
Woodside	Naincy Arya	Naincy is an amazing asset in our class. She consistently participates in class, sharing ideas that apply to the learning objectives. She shows perseverance during challenging tasks by asking questions and revising her thinking. These attributes and her positive attitude will take her far.
Eisenhower	Jeffery Jackson	Jeffery is a positive influence in the classroom. He participates in group activities and completes his work. He is kind and polite with others.
Evergreen	Collin Nakamura	Collin is an Evergreen Timberwolf through and through. He is a key member of the football team, he brings joy to his work as an office TA, and he excels in his classes. He works hard and consistently makes the effort to do well in everything he does.
Gateway	Noah McKinley	Noah works so hard each day in all of his classes. He overcomes roadblocks and has a positive attitude when challenged. Keep going, Noah, and never give up!
Heatherwood	Sofia Sulca Galvez	This is Sofia's first year at Heatherwood as a 7th grader. Coming from out of district, Sofia is currently taking some of our most challenging courses and doing incredible! Keep up your amazing learning, Sofia! We are so happy you have joined the Heatherwood Hawks!

North	Joseph (Anthony) Arismendez	In his first few months at North, Anthony has become well-known and respected as an engaged, ever-ready learner. He is inquisitive and finds interest in nearly everything. As such, he is a critical asset to every classroom and shares his love of learning with all, students and staff alike.
Cascade	Adriana Garrett-Parker	Adriana has shown significant progress in grades, attendance, and engagement with the school community over the last two years. Her hard work highlights her perseverance and ability to maintain a positive outlook and a constant focus on moving forward, even in challenging situations. Her participation in school, particularly in classes and extracurriculars like Cheer, keeps her involved and engaged in the larger CHS school community.
Everett	Brady Jewett-Slayton	Brady is an awesome kid who shows leadership and learning with DECA and School Store. He has strong grades and seeks to learn. He is curious and engaged and sets a really good example of learning for everyone.
Jackson High	Marin Lambert	Marin has shown her keenness for learning over her four years at Jackson in some of the most challenging classes we offer. Even while balancing XC captain, track, and knowledge bowl co-captain, she's always shown up to class ready to ask deeper questions. She's demonstrated this learning through her consistent 5s on the hardest AP exams and her eagerness to always help her peers.
Sequoia	Alena Rosbarsky	Alena has demonstrated herself to be an enthusiastic and open learner with a passion for exploration, experimentation, and problem-solving. She is extremely creative in her approach to art making and maintains a growth-focused attitude about her creations. Alena, it has been so fun to watch your art projects unfold. Your willingness to learn and explore with an open mind is a huge part of your success!!
Sequoia GOAL Program	Lauren Fontenette	Lauren comes to school each day with a growth mindset and is ready to engage in learning. She works through challenging ideas and goes beyond expectations to master skills. She shines at acquiring and understanding new knowledge!