2025 Prodigies for Peace Writing Contest Grades 6-8 and Grades 9-12

Rev. Dr. Martin King, Jr. said, "We must learn to live together as brothers or perish together as fools."

Please write an essay on the following question:

Dr. King gave his "I Have a Dream" speech on August 28, 1963, over 60 years ago, and still there are times of challenge and controversy from identifying people as specific groups rather than fellow citizens. With all the challenges and controversies of today, how would you encourage your fellow citizens to walk together to achieve Rev. Dr. King's dream?

Background and instructions:

Consider how Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s legacy affected the civil rights and other important issues of all Americans. During the 1963 March on Washington, Dr. King spoke of his dreams that "one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal.'" His message was to reach all people to overcome the fear and hate that creates inequity and injustice – what is your message of making his dream a reality?
