

FEAC Meeting
Thursday March 20, 2025, 5:00
Community Resource Center

Purpose statement: For the 2024-2025 school year, the council is charged with advising, fostering, and promoting a culture of family engagement across the district and in the schools.

AGENDA

5:00-5:30	Dinner
5:30-5:35	Welcome and Opening Comments <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Norms• Purpose of the FEAC	Chris Fulford, Director of Categorical Programs
5:35 - 6:15	Learning: EPS School Construction Bond Overview: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• What is a School Construction Bond?• What are three reasons for new facilities in the district?<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ How does a School Construction Bond benefit the EPS community	Larry Fleckenstein, Chief Operations Officer
6:15 – 6:55	Discussion and Feedback: Value of Family and Community Input: "Your insights as school representatives are invaluable. You connect directly with families and provide key perspectives on how our customer service is experienced." Encourage Honest Feedback: "This is a collaborative process, so please share your honest experiences and suggestions. Even small changes can have a big impact on our families and community." 1. Activity: Hands on opportunity to explore school construction bond needs for space coupled with needs for replacing aging facilities in Everett Public Schools. 2. Feedback: <ul style="list-style-type: none">A. Based on your experience how can we best communicate with our families about a school construction bond?B. What information would families in your community need to understand the information you learned today?	Larry Fleckenstein, Chief Operations Officer Harmony Weinberg, Director of Communications

Next Meeting: April 15, 2025

	C. What form of communication is the more receptive when it comes from the district?
6:55-7:00	Next Steps & Closing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> This feedback will be compiled and used in the ongoing process of developing communication and engagement with community. 	Chris Fulford
7:00	Adjourn	Chris Fulford

Norms: Stay engaged - Expect to experience discomfort at some level - Paying attention to self and others - Be aware of intent: Own your impact - Keep focused on our collective goal - Speak your truth - Maintain a learner stance and remain open to new thinking - Pursuing a balance between advocacy and inquiry