

2016 United for Student Success Equity and Engagement Conference

Saturday, October 1st, 2016
Jackson High School 9 am to 4 pm
 1508 136th St. SE Mill Creek, WA 98012

2016 EQUITY AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT CONFERENCE

The Washington State Family and Community Engagement Trust invites you to discover the importance of equity and family and community partnerships in the education of all children. Attend sessions taught by experts in the field, hear inspiring speakers and learn new skills, tools and ideas to improve your practice.

Who should attend? School administrators, teachers, parents, early learning educators, health and social service professionals, community organization partners, school staff, school board directors, and others working with children, families and schools.

Professional Development Opportunity! Clock hours and STARS available. School teams are encouraged to attend.

Featured speakers

Washington's First Lady Trudi Inslee
 Champion of early learning, and programs that positively impact families and children outcomes.

State Representative Ruth Kagi
 Nationally recognized for her work on high quality early learning. Chair of the House Early Learning and Human Services Committee

State Representative Lillian Ortiz-Self
 Co-chair of the Washington State Achievement and Opportunity Gap Oversight Committee

Main Presenters

Special plenary session with
Dr. Ann Ishimaru
 Noted U.W. Professor, author and national equity in education researcher.

Elaine Zimmerman - Executive Director of the State of Connecticut's Commission on Children, creator of the Parent Leadership Training Institute.

Eric Snow - Executive Director and co-creator of Dads of Great Students – WatchD.O.G.S. A school-based program of the National Center for Fathering.

Dr. Marilyn Price-Mitchell - Developmental psychologist, researcher, author of Tomorrow's Change Makers: Reclaiming the Power of Citizenship for a New Generation and co-creator of ParentNet.

Breakout sessions on cultural competence, pre-school to high school diverse family engagement, special education, parent leadership programs, and more! Breakfast and lunch provided. Questions? info@wafamilyengagement.org

$140 per person Register: <http://unitedforstudentsuccess.eventzilla.net> or www.wafamilyengagement.org

Parent scholarships contact: info@wafamilyengagement.org

The Washington State Family and Community Engagement Trust is a state-wide, nonprofit organization working to build the capacity of educators, parents and communities to partner for the education and well-being of children and youth.

www.wafamilyengagement.org