New Transitional Kindergarten Program

Focus on jumpstarting qualifying students toward success in school

Everett Public Schools is offering Transitional Kindergarten for children who are not currently in an early learning program and are scheduled to enter kindergarten in the fall of 2020. The program will focus on basic academic, social and self-help skills to jumpstart students toward success in school. Skills such as standing in line, taking turns and getting used to the routines of the school day, which can sometimes be a stumbling block for early learners, will be emphasized.

Students will be screened in early January and may qualify based on need. The Transitional Kindergarten classrooms will be located at several of the elementary schools in the district; sites will be determined based on enrollment. The anticipated start date is January 28, 2020. Transitional Kindergarten will run through the last day of school, which is currently June 15, 2020.

To be eligible for screening, children must:

- be 5 years old by August 31, 2020
- live within the boundaries of Everett Public Schools
- not be currently enrolled in an early learning program
- demonstrate academic and/or social-emotional needs

The screening is an assessment used to determine a child's developmental strengths and needs. During the appointment, children may draw, count, name colors, jump and will have fun! Following the screening, families will have an opportunity to talk about the results and ask questions about their child's development. At this time, families will also learn whether or not their child qualifies for Transitional Kindergarten.

At Everett Public Schools we are committed to supporting all students at every level of education. One key strategy is to enhance and invest in early childhood learning opportunities. We believe offering Transitional Kindergarten is a positive and critical step in helping children transition into our schools and start their journey to becoming a lifelong learner.

Interest forms will be accepted starting Wednesday, November 13, 2019. If you are interested and believe your child may qualify for this program, please complete the online form (<https://everettsd.org/earlylearning>).
