Equitable access to resources to support student learning

- Identify and remove barriers to authentic learning and high expectations for our diverse learners

- Establish district-wide expectations for instructional time, master schedules and course offerings

- Ensure flexible learning opportunities and choice programs are accessible for all students