

Field Tech Instructions

Installing Google Input Tools

1. Search for Google Input Tools and select the link below

A screenshot of a Google search results page. The search bar at the top contains "google input tools". Below the search bar, there are tabs for "All", "Books", "Videos", "News", "Images", and "More". To the right of these are "Settings" and "Tools" buttons. The main search results area shows a snippet for "Google Input Tools" with a link to <https://www.google.com/inputtools>. A red circle highlights this link. Below the snippet, there is a brief description: "Available for Google services, Chrome, Android devices, and Windows. ... Google Input Tools remembers your corrections and maintains a custom dictionary for ...". There are two additional links: "Try Google Input Tools online" and "On Chrome".

2. Select Install Google Input Tools

A screenshot of the "Google Input Tools" website. The header includes "Home", "Try it out", "On Chrome", and "On Google Services". The "On Chrome" tab is selected. The main content area is titled "Google Input Tools Chrome extension". It features a large image of the Google logo with the text "Google Input Tools for Multi-languages: The Chrome Extension". Below the image is a "Download Chrome Extension" button. At the bottom of the page, there is a section with the heading "How to install" and a link "1. Install Google Input Tools". A red circle highlights this link.

3. Select Add to Chrome and then add extension

A screenshot of the Google Chrome Web Store page for "Google Input Tools". The page shows a rating of 4.5 stars from 4383 reviews, 1,105,046 users, and tabs for "OVERVIEW", "REVIEWS", and "RELATED". On the right side, there is a large "ADD TO CHROME" button with a plus sign. A red circle highlights this button. Below the store page, a modal window titled "Add 'Google Input Tools'?". It asks "It can:" and "Read and change all your data on the websites you visit". At the bottom of the modal are two buttons: "Add extension" (highlighted with a red circle) and "Cancel".