

Welcome!

Quickwrite: We all foster a safe, positive, student-focused learning environment. As teachers we spend considerable time at the start of the year working towards this goal. Use words and or pictures to show what you have done to establish this type of environment for your students this year. Write a short entry reflecting on the effectiveness so far of your efforts. We will be sharing parts of the entry with a classmate.