Everything you ever wanted to know about kindergarten, now you can ask

Entering kindergarten is a very big step that sometimes can cause more anxiety for parents than it does for the children involved. To set everyone's mind at ease and help families be more prepared for their first public school experience, elementary schools in Everett Public Schools are hosting Getting Ready for Kindergarten open houses this spring and next fall at the dates and times listed below.

More information is available at the phone numbers listed.
